

Khon Kaen University of Thailand visited Keio University School of Medicine

On January 21, 2009, the delegation from Khon Kaen University Faculty of Associated Medical Sciences visited Shinanomachi campus of Keio University. Dr. Kriengkrai Kitcharoen, Dean of the faculty of Associated Medical Sciences, and the faculty members who are engaged in researches and clinical services of Oncology visited Dr. Hideyuki Saya, a professor of Institute for Advanced Medical Research. The delegation also joined a hospital tour and met Dr. Makoto Suematsu, Dean of School of Medicine, to talk about the possibility of research cooperation in the future.

Khon Kaen University, established in 1964, is the largest national university in the northeastern region of Thailand. It established a university hospital in 1975 and Faculty of Associated Medical Sciences in 1978.

Visited Dr.Saya's lab.

first from the right Dr. Hideyuki Saya (Keio)

second from the right Dr. Kriengkrai Kitcharoen (Khoen Kaen)